

I believe it to be wrong to charge we the people money for their news stations and then give us propoganda, according to their preference of politics. I refust to accept this atrocity. A documentary for public viewing at a theatre or pay per view is one thing, but forced into the homes of all politics is really hitting below the belt and I believe it is a fraud, and not giving me what I pay for.